

Sebastian Bahrinipour

Managing Partner | Frankfurt & Witten Office
Grad.-Economist, Coach (DCV), IT Professional

+49 170 23 00 211
bahrinipour@witten.group

Professional Background

Following a vocational training in IT at Siemens, Sebastian Bahrinipour studied economics at the Ruhr-University Bochum, the EDHEC Nice and the University Witten/Herdecke with a focus on management, consulting & psychology. After various jobs in the industrial sector, e.g. at Siemens, Porsche (G & USA) and ThyssenKrupp, he successfully managed the development and implementation of a family business' corporate strategy as management assistant. He continued to work as an independent consultant and finally founded the witten.group, which he has successfully managed for 5 years. Sebastian Bahrinipour received training in systemic organizational consultancy, coaching, management of complexity & effectuation..

Expertise

- Complex and sustainable change processes
- Development and implementation of strategy
- Learning and development programs for professionals und organizations
- Design and facilitation of workshops (strategy, change, conflict)
- Coaching of „key persons“
- Managing director of the witten.group

Key Projects

- Chemistry/Integration process: Project manager, change management, monitoring
- Chemistry/Global Leadership Program: Design, training and project lead
- Mechanical Engineering/Consultancy: Strategy development and implementation
- Health/Consultancy: Management tools and management development
- Automobile/Consultancy: Change management digital platform

»The difference between theory and practice is more pronounced in practice than in theory – and that's why the focus of our work rests on the practical support of our clients!«